

Commander Beth F. Coye, U.S. Navy (ret.) Bibliography

Studies and Magazines:

Coye, Beth F., Study: The Future of the Restricted Unrestricted Line Officer
U.S. Naval War College, Newport, R.I., 1971.

Coye, Beth F., “The Restricted Unrestricted Line Officer: The Status of the Navy’s Woman Line Officer”, Naval War College Review, March 1972, pp. 53-63.

Coye, Beth F., “Is There Room for Women in Navy Management: An Attitudinal Survey”, Naval War College Review, Jan-Feb 1973.

Coye, Beth F., “We’ve Come a Long Way, But...”, United States Naval
Institute Proceedings, July 1979, pp. 41-49.

Oceans Policy Study 2:5, To Provide and Maintain a Navy: Planning for a Changing World, Conference Papers, March 1980 “The Role of Women in the Navy in the 1980’s and 1990’s, Commander Beth F.
Coye, U.S. Navy, pp. 5-18.

Coye, Beth F., My Navy Too, a creative memoir, Cedar Hollow Press,
Ashland, Oregon, 1997.

We Are Family Too, Military Outreach Committee (MOC)’s Family
Initiative, prepared for DoD Comprehensive Review Working
Group, April 2010. [Commander Beth F. Coye, U.S. Navy, (ret.)
Editor].

Coye, Beth F., “Take Courage”, Coming Out in Faith, Voices of LBGTQ
Unitarian Universalists, Skinner House, 2011.

Coye, Beth F., “Truth in Action”, Keynote Speech for Society of American Law Teachers’ (SALT) 13th Annual Trine Grillo Public Interest and Social Justice Law Retreat, University of San Francisco School of Law, March 25-27 2011.

Coye, Beth F. '59, "Don't Ask, Don't Tell: A Personal Journey to Activism", Wellesley Magazine, Winter 2011, pp. 20-23.

Wheeler, Sam, Legendary Locals of Ashland, Arcadia Publishing, [Beth F. Coye, p. 85].

Newspaper Articles

Coye, Beth F., Newsday, "It's Time for We the People to Halt Arms Race," December 2, 1986, p.62.

Jacobson, Jim, San Diego Newsline, "Former Navy Commander leads local nuclear freeze", January 27, 1987, p.5.

Coye, Beth F., The Mail Tribune, "Can U.S. armed forces accept gays?" Jan 10, 1993.

Coye, Beth F., Lithiagraph (biweekly Ashland paper), "Security? Equality? Don't Ask", May 2000.

Coye, Beth F., Ashland Daily Tidings, "That sinking feeling returns", February 28, 2005 [re: President Bush's Iraqi policy].

Fattig, Paul, Mail Tribune (Medford, Oregon), "Local retired naval officer lobbies for equality for gays in the U.S. military", June 23, 2006.

Coye, Beth F., Daily Tidings (Ashland, Oregon), "Gays in the military: Connecting the dots", p. A4. January 24, 2007.

Coye, Beth F., The Stump (online), The Oregonian, "Not Ready to Lead", 15 Sept 2008 [Sarah Palin as VP].

Coye, Beth F., Ashland Daily Tidings, "President Sarah Palin, Commander-in-Chief", September 16, 2008.

Coye, Beth F., The Sunday Oregonian, "It's about integrity, senator" (about DADT), February 21, 2010.

- Darling, John, Sunday Mail Tribune, “Don’t ask, don’t tell doesn’t fly with her”, May 30, 2010.
- Deakin, Michelle Bates, UU World, Fall, 2010, “UU leads fight against ‘Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell’”, pp. 46-47.
- Florip, Eric, The Oregonian, “Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell: Local reaction falls on both sides.” 19 Dec 2010.
- Coye, Beth F., The Seattle Times, “Time for Senator McCain to support ending the military’s ‘don’t ask, don’t tell’ policy”, 3 Dec 2010.
- Coye, Beth F., Oregonlive (Oregonian online), “Expressing thanks for the Repeal of ‘don’t ask, don’t tell’”. 27 Dec 2010.
- Wheeler, Sam, Ashland Daily Tidings, “Time to tell”, 21 Sept 2011.
- Coye, Beth F., The Oregonian, “Women in combat: Dreams and justice do matter”, January 30, 2013.
- Coye, Beth F., Wellesley College News, “The Natural Political Leader and Activist” (Hillary Clinton), 29 March 2016. [Also in Huffington Post.]
- Coye, Beth F., The Day (New London, CT), “Dad taught her nation’s values”. 18 June 2017.
- Coye, Beth F., The Seattle Times, “Honor and civility: If the president won’t uphold our values, we must”, 13 June 2017. [Also in several other papers including Miami Herald on 4th of July 2017.]
- Coye, Beth F. Providence Journal, “President is the enemy of the people”, Sunday, July 29, 2018. [Also in several other newspapers.]
- Coye, Beth F. Military Times’ Commentary: “McCain was a global leader and a ‘GDHP’. But is he irreplaceable?”, Sept. 3, 2018.