

Freedom Debate

Thursday, April 21st at 8p.m.

Huron College/Buchert Auditorium

Equal Rights Amendment

MARY LYNN MYERS

NOW. Mary Lynn Myers is a White House Fellow and presently serves as a special assistant to the Secretary of Commerce in Washington, D.C. She is a member of the National Board of Directors for NOW. Ms. Myers was graduated from The University of South Dakota and obtained an M.S. degree from DePaul University, Chicago.

Phyllis Schlafly

Stop E.R.A. Phyllis Schlafly combines a career as TV-radio commentator, best-selling author and debator with a traditional role as wife and mother of six children. Since 1967 she has written The Phyllis Schlafly Report. She is a graduate of Washington University in St. Louis and holds a M.A. from Harvard University.

Sponsored By

Texas Educational Association
South Dakota Committee on the Humanities
Huron College