

RESOLUTION HONORING JUDITH KNEE

11/98

WHEREAS the esteemed Judith Knee, for the better part of seventeen years, has selflessly devoted her time and resources to serving as Bylaws Chair, also known as Bylaws Queen, of the National Organization for Women; and

WHEREAS throughout these years Judith Knee has successfully led and guided us in the understanding and interpretation of both the NOW grievance policy and Robert's Rule of Order Newly Revised, a feat worthy of the Nobel peace prize; and

WHEREAS Judith Knee has executed these daunting tasks with alacrity and good humor; and

WHEREAS Judith Knee is a woman of great acumen, integrity, and needlepoint, and can bat down red cards faster than a speeding bullet; and

WHEREAS Judith Knee, is admired and beloved by everyone who knows her, as evidenced by the great devotion of even those friends and colleagues who know of her soap opera addiction;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the National Organization for Women honors and salutes the distinguished Judith Knee; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that on this 20th day of November, 1999, the National Organization for Women hereby confers upon Judith Knee with our deep gratitude the status of Lifetime Member of NOW.
